NWPC, RTWPBs set priorities and targets for 2016

The NWPC held the annual NWPC-RTWPB I corporate planning exercise in La Carmela de Boracay, Malay, Aklan last January 14-15, with DOLE Secretary and NWPC Chairperson Rosalinda Dimapilis-Baldoz and Undersecretary/NWPC Chairperson-Designate Nicon F. Fameronag in attendance.

In her message, Secretary Baldoz cited the positive results of the two-tiered wage system (TTWS) in terms of closing the minimum wagepoverty threshold gap and reducing the arbitrariness and political dynamics of wage setting. She added that the Commission and Boards, however, should also come up with regional living wage estimates that enterprises can refer to for purposes of reviewing their compensation packages. She said the TTWS also sought to tighten the link between pay and productivity
